New Record: Kirsten Engel Reports Largest Ever First Quarter Fundraising Numbers in Arizona, Outraising Opponent

Engel raised a record-breaking $1.2 million in the First Quarter of 2024

TUCSON — Democratic Candidate for Arizona’s 6th Congressional District, Kirsten Engel, announced that she has raised $1.2 million in Q1 of the election year, surpassing all prior records of what Arizona Congressional Candidates have raised in this particular quarter and outraising her opponent, Juan Ciscomani. This is more than double the amount Engel raised in prior quarters, and grows her impressive war chest to more than $1.8 million.

“We are building a people-powered and grassroots movement to finally give South Arizonans the sensible and solutions-oriented leadership they deserve,” said Kirsten Engel. “I am so grateful that our message and campaign resonates with voters and inspires people to join our efforts. I do not take any of this support for granted. Southern Arizonans have had enough of extremists like Juan Ciscomani, who are more concerned with answering to his party bosses than serving our community. He is failing us. I’m laser-focused and determined to build on this momentum and deliver common sense results for South Arizonans.”

Engel faces Ciscomani in a rematch from 2022, where she lost by approximately 5,000 votes despite being outspent 6 to 1. She is committed to putting Arizona families over Washington special interests— that’s why she has rejected corporate PAC contributions to her campaign, and is proud to have received more than 17,000 individual donations this campaign cycle.

Kirsten Engel is a mom, an environmental attorney, and a former State Legislator who has fought for years to restore funding to public schools, protect Arizona’s natural resources, and make our communities safer. She’s ready to take that fight to Washington to find common-sense solutions to the challenges we're facing here in Arizona's Sixth Congressional District.
