Kirsten Engel Statement On Veterans Day 2023

TUCSON, AZ — Today, Kirsten Engel – educator, former Arizona state legislator, and mom – released the following statement to honor the brave men and women who have served our nation on Veterans Day.

“Happy Veterans Day to Arizona’s brave men and women who have put on the uniform to serve our nation and protect our homeland from foreign adversaries. Today serves as a reminder that our continued duty as Americans is to honor the sacrifice made by so many in the line of duty.

“This commitment must be continued when our servicemembers return home. That’s why in Congress I will always seek bipartisan solutions to improve workforce training opportunities, access to affordable care, and mental health services.

“Partisan politics in Washington, D.C. have stalled our obligation to serve those who served us. These games need to end so Congress can continue to act and honor our pact.”
