FACT CHECK: Juan Ciscomani's Record on the Border

TUCSON, AZ — Juan Ciscomani is once again misleading Arizona voters, this time claiming to be working to secure the border. The facts say otherwise.

Ciscomani opposed the toughest bipartisan border security deal in a generation because Donald Trump told his party to tank the historic legislation so they could continue to campaign on the border.

The bipartisan border deal Ciscomani opposed was endorsed by the Border Patrol Union and included:

- More than 1,500 more CBP agents on the border
- Fund the installation of 100 cutting-edge inspection machines to help detect fentanyl at ports of entry
- An additional 4,300 Asylum Officers
- Funding for an additional 100 immigration judges and their associated staff
